Editorial Review

Review

“A hugely informative, completely hilarious, and desperately necessary guide to marijuana—written by one of the funniest guys I’ve ever known, who just so happens to be the person who got me high for the first time. Required reading for longtime potheads and new users alike.”

—Dan Savage

“If weed’s already a part of your life, this fun and insightful book is the perfect owner’s manual. And for those for whom it’s not, David Schmader answers all the basic questions you were too afraid to ask. By the end of the book, Schmader feels like both an older brother and a trusted friend.”

—Rick Steves

“The world has enough books dealing in stoner stereotypes. David Schmader’s funny, fact-packed Weed is something new and necessary.”

—Reggie Watts, star of IFC’s Comedy Bang Bang

Denver Best Seller List

“A witty guide full of history, recipes, safety and legality tips, and medical information.”

—Publishers Weekly

“[Weed] is smoothly written and completely thought out, covering the basics of usage (smoking, vaping, consuming edibles, and applying the substance topically) as well as ‘marijuana etiquette’ (don’t bogart, man!). There are recipes for classic pot brownies and cannabis-infused oil, and humor reigns the day (the advice for scoring includes offering homemade banana bread to the neighbors if you’ve ever smelled pot smoke wafting from their door). It’s irreverent, to be sure, but serious advice includes what do to if you’re high, and don’t want to be, as well as a chapter on safety and legality.”

—Booklist

“Buy everyone this book. The information inside is absolutely indispensable for stoners and novices alike. Schmader tackles all the basics of bud, plus plenty of esoteric but equally important stuff. It's got everything from the ancient history of pot (where he considers the all-important question "Was Jesus a stoner?") to a compound-by-compound breakdown of all the chemicals that make pot pot. While it's extremely useful and educational, it's also just really fun to read, which is no surprise coming from Schmader.”

—The Stranger

“Weed: The User’s Guide is an encyclopedia of marijuana history, use, and culture for those questions you’re afraid to ask at your friendly neighborhood pot shop...The book is hilarious and entertaining and thoroughly Schmader-y.”

—Seattle Weekly

“[An] indispensable book for beginning or returning dope smokers.”

—Portland Mercury

“The adult-like approach to cannabis acts as a prism through which readers can absorb a plethora of information: Schmader covers subjects ranging from etiquette, history, recipes, and even select musical and museum experiences that may be made even better after having smoked.”

—Herb, formerly The Stoner's Cookbook

“Schmader may just be a regular guy, but he is remarkable in his willingness to be vulnerable, to lay himself bare, in order connect with people to realize a collective truth.”

—Boulder Weekly

"From the requisite history of marijuana cultivation, usage, glossary, step-by-step instructions for an assortment of popular consumption methods, and pot etiquette, each page is delivered with the honesty, humor and tenderness of a trusted friend. A friend who has tested the water for us and now lovingly coaxes us in."

— Jetspace Magazine

"This is a necessary book as we move into a legal weed culture, and people should read it."

—Savage Love

“David Schmader is a goddamned Seattle treasure....Funny...entertaining...” and “useful.”

—The Seattle Review of Books

“One of the very best cannabis books as of late.”

—Comics Grinder

“This writer is redefining what it means to be a pothead.”

—Civilized

“A modern guide to responsible marijuana use.”

—Stackedd magazine

“A guide to the brave new world of legal marijuana.”

—Shelf Talk, New and Noteworthy Northwest Nonfiction

“If David Schmader does anything, ever... you can bet it will be both informative and hilarious.”

—City Arts online

"Weed: The User's Guide is full of information about medical use and safety and legality and recipes and you can learn even more from David"

—KUOW

"The title...really speaks for itself: Weed: The User's Guide—A 21st-Century Handbook for Enjoying Marijuana."

— Portland Monthly

“You laugh because it's true.”

—Bustle

"A lot of fun."

—KBOO

"David Schmader is a legend."

—Westword

"A witty handbook for new and experienced users alike."
