Let It Bleed: A WVMP novella (WVMP Radio) By Jeri Smith-Ready

BLOOD IS THICKER THAN SLAUGHTER

Con artist-turned-radio-station-manager Ciara Griffin hopes to settle into a normal un-life as a fledgling vampire, with the help of her immortally hot fiancé, grunge DJ Shane McAllister. But she has bigger problems than finding a sane blood donor and a new home for those boxes of mac 'n' cheese. Ciara's best friend mourns her like she's dead instead of undead, and her own maker clearly wishes she'd never been born (again). Worst of all, the WVMP crew calls a Code Black: hippie vampire DJ Jim has murdered a pair of humans—humans who share Ciara's true last name.

That's when trouble rolls out the red carpet, straight into Ciara's life. At Shane's first live concert, Ciara finds herself face to face with her Irish Traveller cousins, a not-so-welcome family reunion that might hold the key to Ciara's anti-holy blood. Jim's spiral into madness makes Ciara an unwilling prize in his deadly feud with Shane. As Ciara clings to what's left of her humanity, she'll need her new vampire strength—and old con artist cunning—now more than ever.

“Let It Bleed” (WVMP Book 3.5) includes the bonus short story “Thief” (WVMP Book 3.1), starring Ciara's 16-year-old cousin Cass. “Thief” steps inside Ciara's mysterious birth family, whose relationship with vampires is anything but simple.
