The Ranger Book: A History 1634 - 2006 By Ross Hall

The Ranger Book is a unique compilation of American Ranger history, supported by more than 70 voices. Produced in an easily read narrative, this documentary is presented chronologically, covering every conflict, the evolution of training, and unit formation and structure. Punctuated by pertinent Ranger interviews dating from WWII, this project features nearly 400 years of detailed history of men who do not quit - men who have become the "apex battlefield predator." From humble beginnings as savvy backwoodsmen to the sophistication of the current 75th Ranger Regiment, the story of the Rangers is one of dedication, determination and excellence.
