Editorial Review

Review

John Patrick's book on Sports Handicapping is the first of its kind in giving a realistic look into the life of a professional gambler. -- PAY PER VIEW station, L.A. California

About the Author

John Patrick is a professional gambler, host of his own TV show for 14 years and has made over 1000 appearances on Radio and TV shows, explaining the proper procedure for intelligent gambling techniques.

He has written 13 books on all phases of gambling, been quoted in numerous magazines and newspapers and was satirized on Saturday Night Live. His Theories are conservative but effective, having been involved in the gambling world for over 35 years.

Finally, his Theories are very confrontational.....many times daring his readers to use the moves it takes to become a successful gambler. You may question his style, but you can't question his success in gambling.
